

Curriculum Vitae

Maria Näther

Personal information

Date of birth May 17, 1990
Nationality German

Education

04/2013 – present Doctoral studies in Economics, Leipzig University, Germany
Supervisors: Prof. Harald Wiese, Prof. Uwe Vollmer
Research focus: Interbank markets, bank regulation, monetary policy, financial stability

10/2008 – 03/2013 Studies in Business Mathematics, Leipzig University, Germany
Degree: Diplom Wirtschaftsmathematikerin (equivalent to M.Sc.)
Thesis: "Hedging in Illiquid Binomial Markets"
Grade: 1.1

Work experience and voluntary work

04/2013 – present Research associate at the Institute for Theoretical Economics,
Microeconomics, Leipzig University, Germany

- Engagement in research including conference presentations and authoring of articles for publication
- Teaching, Bachelor thesis supervision, examination
- Execution of administrative tasks

01/2011 – 07/2016 Teacher at LSGM (Leipziger Schülersgesellschaft für Mathematik)

- Organization and implementation of courses to promote mathematically talented and interested students (school year 5-9)

Working paper

"The Mutual Interdependence between Regulation and the Representative Form of a Multinational Bank"

"Core-Periphery Formation in Interbank Markets"

"National versus Supranational Regulation: The Gains and Losses of Joining a Banking Union" (together with Uwe Vollmer, R&R at Economic Systems)

"The Effect of the Central Bank's Standing Facilities on Interbank Lending and Bank Liquidity Holding" (R&R at Economic Theory)

Conference presentations

09/2017	Annual Congress of the German Economic Association (Verein für Socialpolitik), Vienna, Austria
08/2017	Annual Congress of the European Economic Association and the Econometric Society, Lisbon, Portugal
04/2017	Annual Congress of the Scottish Economic Society, Perth, UK
03/2017	Annual Congress of the Swiss Society for Financial Market Research (SGF conference), Zurich, Switzerland
03/2017	Spring Meeting of Young Economists (SMYE), Halle (Saale), Germany
11/2016	ROME (Research on money and the economy) Autumn Workshop, Frankfurt am Main, Germany
06/2015	Annual Congress of the Swiss Society of Economics and Statistics, Basel, Switzerland
02/2015	RGS Doctoral Conference in Economics, Essen, Germany

Teaching experience

2013-2017	Advanced Microeconomics, Leipzig University, Germany Preparation course, Master
2011-2017	Microeconomics, Leipzig University Tutorial, Bachelor
2016	International Economic Policy, Leipzig University Organization and term paper mentoring, Bachelor
2013-2015	Competitive Strategy, Leipzig University Lecture, Bachelor
2011-2013	Basic Analysis, Leipzig University and Fernuniversität Hagen, Germany Teaching assistance, Bachelor

PhD courses

08, 09/2016	“Microeconometric Treatment and Policy Evaluation”, IWH Halle Lecturer: Martin Huber, grade 1.3
08/2015	“Behavioral and Non-Behavioral Perspectives on Modern Contract Theory”, OVGU Magdeburg Lecturer: Henrik Lando, grade: 1.0
10/2014	“Topics in Contract Theory”, IWH Halle Lecturer: Anja Schöttner, grade: 1.0
09/2013	“Frontiers in Microeconomics”, IWH Halle Lecturer: Juan Moreno-Ternero, grade: 1.0

Additional skills

Languages	German (mother tongue) English (fluent, used on a daily basis at work) Spanish (basic, learned in school years 5-12)
IT-skills	Latex, Lyx (advanced knowledge, creation of text documents and beamer presentations including mathematical formulas, realization of basic figures with tikz) R (basic coding and computation of linear regressions) Matlab, C (experience during my diploma studies) Word, Powerpoint, E-Mail programs (used on daily basis)

References

Harald Wiese, wiese@wifa.uni-leipzig.de
Uwe Vollmer, vollmer@wifa.uni-leipzig.de

Leipzig, January 2018